Under that practice it would be deposited with the U.S. Postal Service on that same day with postage thereon fully prepaid in the ordinary course of business. SAN DIEGO COUNTY, CA

YOU ARE BEING SUED BY PLAINTIFF:(LO ESTÁ DEMANDANDO EL DEMANDANTE):

ANGELIQUE COBB, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol/), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. 1 Plaintiff ANGELIQUE COBB, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated,
2 complain and allege as follows:

3 I.

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. This case arises out of the failure to provide rest and meal periods, requiring 6 employees to work straight time and overtime while clocked out for meal periods, failing to 7 reimburse expenses for speciality items like uniforms and work shirts, and failure to provide at 8 least half the scheduled shift to employees who report to work. The preceding applies to certain 9 California employees employed by, or formerly employed by, GORDON BIERSCHE BREWING
10 COMPANY, INC., GB ACQUISITIONS, INC., and GB ACQUISITIONS, INC. dba GORDON 11 BIERSCHE BREWERY RESTAURANT GROUP, INC. (hereinafter collectively referred to as 12 "GORDON BIERSCHE" and "GORDON BIERSCHE's Non-exempt hourly employees"). The 13 proposed plaintiff class consists of persons classified as hourly non-exempt employees and other 14 similarly situated employees of Defendants who, during the class period, which is defined as four 15 years prior to filing the complaint through the present, were required to perform off the clock 16 work while clocked out for meal periods, were denied overtime compensation, meal periods, rest 17 breaks, or an hour's pay in lieu thereof, and whose work attire expenses were not properly 18 reimbursed.

19 2. During the class period, Defendants had a consistent policy of requiring Plaintiff 20 and members of the Plaintiff class to clock out for meal periods while continuing to perform 21 work-related duties without being compensated at their regular rate of pay in violation of 22 California state wage and hour laws.

23 3. During the class period, Defendants have had a consistent policy of requiring 24 GORDON BIERSCHE's Non-Exempt Employees within the State of California, including 25 Plaintiff, to work through meal periods or work without a meal period for at least five (5) hours 26 of a shift and failing to pay such employees one (1) hour of pay at the employees' regular rate of 27 compensation for each workday that the meal period is not provided, or other compensation, as 28 required by California state wage and hour laws.

1 4. During the class period, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to 2 provide GORDON BIERSCHE's Non-Exempt Employees within the State of California, including 3 Plaintiff, rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fraction 4 thereof and failing to pay such employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of 5 compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided, or other compensation, as 6 required by California state wage and hour laws.

7 5. During the class period, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to 8 provide GORDON BIERSCHE's Non-Exempt Employees within the State of California, including 9 Plaintiff, minimum reporting time pay of the usual scheduled day's work, but in no event for less 10 than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours, at the regular rate of pay when an employee is 11 scheduled to report to work but is furnished less than half of said employee's usual or scheduled 12 days work. Furthermore, said non-exempt Employees tips were routinely over-reported based on 13 credit card receipts due to inadequate and inaccurate record keeping by said Defendants, and each 14 of them, resulting in increased and unfair tax liabilities to the employees.

15 6. During the class period, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to 16 provide GORDON BIERSCHE's Non-Exempt Employees within the State of California, including 17 Plaintiff, compensation for the purchase of required specialty items.

18 7. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all Class Members, brings this action 19 pursuant to Labor Code sections 218, 226.7, 512, 1194, and 2802, and California Code of 20 Regulations, Title 8, section 11050 seeking unpaid hourly wages, unpaid rest and meal period 21 compensation, minimum reporting pay, compensation for required purchases, penalties, 22 injunctive and other equitable relief, and reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

23 8. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all Class Members, brings this action pursuant 24 to Business and Professions Code sections 17200-17208, also seeks injunctive relief, restitution, 25 and disgorgement of all benefits Defendants enjoyed from their failure to provide hourly wages, 26 overtime wages for off-the-clock working while clocked out for meal periods, rest and meal 27 period compensation, minimum reporting pay, and for increased tax liability for said Defendants 28 failure to accurately report tip earnings.

1 II.

2 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3 8. Venue as to these Defendants is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to Code of 4 Civil Procedure section 395. Plaintiff is a resident of San Diego County and was employed by 5 Defendants in San Diego County. As Defendants operate a restaurant and are doing business in 6 San Diego County, they are within the jurisdiction of this Court for service of process purposes.
 7 The unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and those similarly situated 8 within the State of California and within San Diego County. Defendants employ numerous Class 9 Members in San Diego County and throughout the State of California.

10 III.

11 THE PARTIES

12 A. The Plaintiffs

13 9. Plaintiff ANGELIQUE COBB is a resident of San Diego County, California. At all 14 relevant time herein, she has been employed by Defendants as a server in San Diego County, 15 California, and has been employed by GORDON BIERSCHE as an hourly employee in a non-16 exempt capacity during the liability period.

17 10. As a server, Plaintiff COBB was regularly required to:

- 18 a. work off the clock while clocked out for meal periods;
- 19 b. work through rest and meal periods and was required under threat of 20 retaliation to sign for lunch whether taken or not;
- 21 c. work in excess of five (5) and/or ten (10) hours per day without being 22 provided a first and/or second meal period and not being compensated one 23 (1) hour of pay at her regular rate of compensation for each workday that a 24 meal period was not provided, all in violation of California labor laws, 25 regulations, and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders;
- 26 d. work without being provided a minimum ten (10) minute rest period for 27 every four (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked and not being 28 compensated one (1) hour of pay or other compensation at her regular rate

1 of compensation for each work day that a rest period was not provided;

2 e. report for work as scheduled only to be furnished with less than half of her 3 usual or scheduled day's work without compensation for half the usual or 4 scheduled day's work at her regular rate of pay;

5 f. report tip compensation greater than that which was actually paid due to 6 poor, inadequate and inaccurate record keeping by said Defendants, and 7 each of them, resulting in unfair and increased state and federal tax 8 liabilities to said employees and the putative class; and 9 g. purchase additional specialty items including, specific uniform shirts and 10 aprons and/or non-slip shoes without being reimbursed in violation of 11 California labor laws, regulations, and Industrial Welfare Commission 12 Wage Orders.

13 B. The Defendants

14 11. Defendants, GORDON BIERSCHE BREWING COMPANY, INC., GB 15 ACQUISITIONS, INC., GB ACQUISITIONS, INC. dba GORDON BIERSCHE BREWERY 16 RESTAURANT GROUP, INC. and any subsidiaries or affiliated companies, are engaged in the 17 ownership and operation of restaurants located in San Diego County and throughout California.
18 During the liability period, Defendants employed Plaintiff and similarly situated persons as 19 GORDON BIERSCHE's Non-Exempt Employees within California and San Diego County. On 20 information and belief, GORDON BIERSCHE is conducting business in good standing in 21 California under a variety of restaurant names and/or fictitious business names.

22 12. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 23 otherwise, of Defendants sued here in as DOES 1 through 125, inclusive, are currently unknown 24 to Plaintiff, who therefore sues Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil 25 Procedure section 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of 26 the Defendants designated herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the 27 unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to 28 reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when

1 such identities become known. Furthermore, each Defendant, including DOES, is believed to be 2 part of a joint venture and/or enterprise engaged in current and ongoing wage and hour violations 3 as more specifically set forth herein, and that, in the event that judgment is entered against the 4 incorrect entity, Plaintiff may enforce judgment to the extent permitted by law under all available 5 theories and remedies, including without limitation, alter ego liability.

6 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each 7 Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, 8 carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of 9 each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants.

10 IV.

11 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

12 14. Defendants operate and, at all times during the liability period, have 13 conducted business in San Diego County and elsewhere within California. Defendants operate 14 restaurants throughout California selling food and drink items. At these restaurants, Defendants 15 have, among other things, employed persons as servers and other hourly positions.

16 15. Upon information and belief, GORDON BIERSCHE is staffed by, among other 17 positions, non-exempt restaurant employees or other similar positions. Upon information and 18 belief, these employees work in non-exempt, non-managerial positions and include, but are not 19 limited to, cooks, servers, bussers, hosts/hostesses, cashiers, dishwashers, cleaners, and or similar 20 and incidental positions related to the operation of a restaurant, and 1) have not been paid during 21 the relevant liability period legal wages, overtime wages for working while clocked out for meal 22 periods, and minimum reporting pay pursuant to the Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission 23 Wage Order 5-2001 and other applicable Wage Orders, 2) were not provided rest periods for 24 work periods of four hours or major fractions thereof or meal periods for work days in excess of 25 five (5) and or ten (10) hours and, 3) were not compensated one hour's wages or other 26 compensation in lieu thereof.

27 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, Defendants currently 28 employ, and during the relevant time period have employed, hundreds of employees in the State

1 of California in non-exempt positions such as servers and/or other similarly situated positions.

2 17. GORDON BIER SCH's Non-Exempt Employees spend the majority of their time 3 doing the following routine, non-discretionary tasks, including but not limited to: taking orders, 4 serving food and drinks, and clearing and setting tables. These duties occupy more than 50% of 5 the work time of each GORDON BIER SCH Non-Exempt Employee.

6 18. GORDON BIER SCH's Non-Exempt Employees are, and at all relevant times 7 pertinent hereto, have been non-exempt employees within the meaning of California Labor Code, 8 and the implementing rules and regulations of the IWC California Wage Orders.

9 19. During the class period, named Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff 10 Class were employed by Defendants as GORDON BIER SCH's Non-Exempt Employees and 11 were paid on an hourly basis.

12 20. During the class period, Plaintiff and the members of the Plaintiff Class 13 were encouraged by management to regularly clock out for a meal break and continue working 14 without being paid at their regular rate of compensation. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and 15 based thereupon alleges that GORDON BIER SCH management and control employees had the 16 capability and did and in fact alter electronic time records of Plaintiff and the putative class 17 throughout the relevant class period so as to minimize or eliminate overtime pay for GORDON 18 BIER SCH's Non-exempt hourly employees. GORDON BIER SCH and all DOE Defendants 19 condoned, authorized and ratified this wrongful conduct of their managing agents.

20 21. During the class period Plaintiff and the members of the Plaintiff Class 21 of GORDON BIER SCH's Non-Exempt Employees were required by management to take a thirty 22 (30) minute meal break at the completion of the employees' shifts, which frequently exceeded 23 eight (8) hours. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereupon alleges that GORDON 24 BIER SCH management and control employees required under threat of termination or retaliation 25 that Plaintiff and the putative class throughout the relevant class period manually sign in and out 26 for lunch at the end of each workday irrespective of whether a lunch was taken and that, in fact, 27 30-minute uninterrupted lunch breaks were not permitted to any employee during the relevant 28 time period. GORDON BIER SCH and all DOE Defendants condoned, authorized and ratified

1 this wrongful conduct of their managing agents so as to maximize productivity and profitability 2 at the expense of their employees.

3 22. During the class period, Plaintiff and the members of the Plaintiff Class 4 were not informed of their right to take a ten-minute rest break for every four (4) hours of work, 5 nor were employees authorized or permitted to take such breaks with any frequency as required 6 by California Labor Code and applicable regulations.

7 23. During the class period, Plaintiff and the members of the Plaintiff Class 8 were required to work in excess of four (4) hours without being provided a rest period and were 9 required to work in excess of five (5) and/or ten (10) hours per day, without being provided meal 10 periods, as mandated under the California Labor Code, and the implementing rules and 11 regulations of the IWC California Wage Orders.

12 24. During the class period, Plaintiff and the members of the Plaintiff Class 13 were regularly dismissed after reporting for their regular shifts without being furnished at least 14 half the day's work hours.

15 25. During the class period, Plaintiff and the members of the Plaintiff Class 16 were not compensated half the usual or scheduled day's work, but in no event less than two (2) 17 hours nor more than four (4) hours, at the employee's regular rate of pay, when the employee was 18 furnished less than half of said employee's usual or scheduled day's work.

19 26. During the class period, Plaintiff and the members of the Plaintiff Class 20 were not reimbursed for the purchase of specialty items employees were required to wear 21 including, aprons, uniforms, safety shoes and specific uniform shirts and logo items from 22 GORDON BIERSCHE, all in violation of Labor Code section 2802.

23 V.

24 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

25 27. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and all other similarly 26 situated persons as a class action pursuant to section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff 27 seeks to represent a Plaintiff Class composed of and defined as follows: 28

1 All of Defendants' California non-exempt hourly restaurant 2 employees who worked for defendants at any time four years prior 3 to the filing of this action through the date of trial ("Relevant Time 4 Period").

5 28. Plaintiff also seeks to bring this action on behalf of herself and all other similarly 6 situated persons in a sub-class of the plaintiff class, which is composed of and defined as 7 follows:

8 Plaintiff Sub-Class: All Plaintiff Class Members who worked off-the-clock while 9 clocked out for meal periods.

10 29. Plaintiff also seeks to bring this action on behalf of herself and all other similarly 11 situated persons in a sub-class of the plaintiff class, which is composed of and defined as 12 follows:

13 Plaintiff Sub-Class: All Plaintiff Class Members who were not provided with 14 lawful meal periods and who were not paid the hour of pay owed for meal periods 15 which were not provided.

16 30. Plaintiff also seeks to bring this action on behalf of herself and all other similarly 17 situated persons in a sub-class of the plaintiff class, which is composed of and defined as 18 follows:

19 Plaintiff Sub-Class: All Plaintiff Class Members who were not provided with 20 lawful rest periods and who were not paid the hour of pay owed for rest periods
 21 which were not provided

22 31. Plaintiff also seeks to bring this action on behalf of herself and all other similarly 23 situated persons in a sub-class of the plaintiff class, which is composed of and defined as 24 follows:

25 Plaintiff Sub-Class: All Plaintiff Class Members who were required to report for 26 work and reported to work, but were not put to work or were furnished less than 27 half the usual or scheduled day's work, and were not paid for half the usual or 28 scheduled day's work.

32. Plaintiff also seeks to bring this action on behalf of herself and all other similarly situated persons in a sub-class of the plaintiff class, which is composed of and defined as follows:

Plaintiff Sub-Class: All Plaintiff Class Members who Defendant did not reimburse for the required purchase of specialty items.

1 33. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rules of Court applicable to class 2 action proceedings, to amend or modify the class description with greater specificity or further 3 division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues.

4 34. Ther action has been brought and may be properly maintained as a class 5 action under the provisions of section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure because there is a well-6 defined community of interest in the litigation and the proposed Class is easily ascertainable.

7 A. Numerosity

8 35. The potential members of the Class as defined are so numerous that joinder
9 of all the members of the Class is impracticable. While the precise number of Class Members 10 has not been determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants currently 11 employ, and during the relevant time periods employed, hundreds of employees, many in the 12 State of California, in positions as GORDON BIERSCHE's Non-Exempt Employees in San Diego 13 County and dispersed throughout California who have been affected by Defendants' policy of 14 requiring hourly employees to work off-the-clock, requiring such employees to work through 15 meal periods and not providing rest or second meal periods without the appropriate legal 16 compensation, failing to provide at least half of said employee's usual or scheduled day's work 17 or compensation in lieu thereof, and failing to compensate employees for required expenses.

18 36. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant periods necessarily 19 increases the number substantially. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff alleges Defendants' 20 employment records would provide information as to the number and location of all Class 21 Members. Joinder of all members of the proposed Class is not practicable.

22 B. Commonality

23 37. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class that predominate 24 over any questions affecting only individual Class Members. These common questions of law 25 and fact include, without limitation:

- 26 a. Whether Defendants violated IWC Wage Order 5-2001 by requiring the 27 plaintiff class members to work off-the-clock while clocked out for meal 28 periods;.

- 1 b. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512, IWC
2 Wage Order 5-2001 or other applicable IWC Wage Orders, and Cal. Code 3 Regs., Title 8 section 11050 by failing to provide meal periods to 4 GORDON BIERSCHE's Non-Exempt Employees on days they worked in 5 excess of five hours and failing to compensate said employees one hour's 6 wages in lieu of meal periods;
- 7 c. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512, Wage 8 Order 5-2001 or other applicable IWC Wage Orders, and Cal. Code Regs., 9 Title 8, section 11050 by failing to provide second meal periods to 10 GORDON BIERSCHE's Non-Exempt Employees on days they worked in 11 excess of ten hours;
- 12 d. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code sections 226.7, Wage Order 5-13 2001 or other applicable IWC Wage Orders, and Cal. Code Regs., Title 8, 14 section 11050 by failing to provide daily rest periods to GORDON 15 BIERSCH's Non-Exempt Employees for every four hours or major 16 fraction thereof worked and failing to compensate said employees one 17 hour's wages in lieu of rest periods;
- 18 e. Whether Defendants violated Wage Order 5-2001 or other applicable IWC 19 Wage Orders, and Cal. Code Regs., Title 8, section 11050 by failing to 20 provide minimum reporting time pay to GORDON BIERSCHE's Non-21 Exempt Employees who reported for work as scheduled only to be 22 furnished with less than half the usual or scheduled day's work without 23 compensation for half the usual or scheduled day's work at the regular rate 24 of pay;
- 25 f. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802, IWC Order 5-
26 2001 or other applicable IWC Wage Orders, and Cal. Code Regs., Title 8, 27 section 11050 by failing to compensate employees for required expenses, 28 including specific work shirts and non-slip safety shoes;

- g. Whether Defendants violated sections 17200, et seq. of the Business and Professions Code by failing to provide rest and meal periods without compensating non-exempt employees one hour's pay for every day such periods were not provided, failing to provide minimum reporting time pay, and failure to compensate employees for required expenses;
- h. Whether Defendants violated sections 17200, et seq. of the Business and Professions Code and Labor Code sections 218, 226.7, 512, 1194, 2802, IWC Wage Order 5-2001 and other applicable IWC Wage Orders of which violation constitutes a violation of fundamental public policy;
- i. Whether Defendants converted money owed to Plaintiff and to the Members of the Plaintiff Class, for their own use;
- j. Whether Defendants kept inadequate and inaccurate tip reporting records that unfairly and unlawfully increased Plaintiff and the putative class's state and federal income tax liability; and
- k. Whether Plaintiff and the Members of the Plaintiff Class are entitled to equitable relief pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.

C. Typicality

38. The claims of the named Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Class. Plaintiff and all members of the Class sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by the Defendants common course of conduct in violation of laws, regulations that have the force and effect of law, and statutes as alleged herein.

D. Adequacy of Representation

39. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the members of the Class. Counsel who represents Plaintiff is competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions.

E. Superiority of Class Action

40. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient

1 adjudication of ther controversy. Individual joinder of all Class Members is not practicable, and 2 questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any questions affecting only 3 individual members of the Class. Each member of the Class has been damaged and is entitled to 4 recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policy and/or practice of failing to pay hourly wages, 5 failing to pay overtime wages for off-the-clock working while clocked out for meal periods, 6 denying Class Members rest and meal periods without legal compensation, requiring employees 7 to work in excess of ten hours per day without second meal periods, failing to legally provide 8 Class Members minimum reporting pay, and failing to compensate employees for required 9 expenses. Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate their 10 claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.
 11 Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of the 12 action that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

6 60. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and the Class she seeks to represent request relief 7 as described below.

8 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
9 Violations of the Unfair Competition Law
10 (Bus. & Prof. Code, §§ 17200-17208)

11 61. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1 through 60 as though fully set forth 12 herein.

13 62. Defendants' failure to pay for all working hours, minimum reporting pay, and 14 failure to compensate for un-provided rest and meal periods to Plaintiff and members of the 15 Plaintiff Class, under the IWC Wage Orders and under California Labor Code, as alleged herein, 16 constitute unlawful activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.

17 63. The actions of Defendants in failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the 18 Plaintiff Class in a lawful manner, as will be further alleged herein, constitute false, unfair, 19 fraudulent and deceptive business practices, within the meaning of Business and Professions 20 Code section 17200, et. seq.

21 64. Plaintiff is entitled to an injunction, specific performance under Business 22 and Professions Code section 17202, and/or other equitable relief against such unlawful practices 23 in order to prevent future loss, for which there is no adequate remedy at law, and to avoid a 24 multiplicity of lawsuits. She brings this cause individually and as a member of the general public 25 as a representative of all others subject to defendants' unlawful acts and practices.

26 65. As a result of their unlawful acts, Defendants have reaped and continue to 27 reap unfair benefits at the expense of Plaintiff and the Class she seeks to represent. Defendants 28 should be enjoined from their activity, caused to specifically perform its obligations, and made to disgorge these ill-gotten gains and restore to Plaintiff and the members of the Plaintiff Class the

1 wrongfully withheld wages and/or other monies pursuant to Business and Professions Code 2 section 17200 et seq. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants are 3 unjustly enriched through their failure to provide hourly wages, failure to provide overtime 4 wages for off-the-clock working while clocked out for meal periods, failure to provide minimum 5 reporting time pay, failure to provide meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof, failure to 6 provide rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof, and failure to provide compensation for 7 required expenses to Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class.

8 66. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Plaintiff and 9 members of the Plaintiff Class are prejudiced by Defendants' unfair trade practices. Specifically, 10 and without limitation, Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief as to Defendant's tip reporting and 11 causing Plaintiff and others similarly situated to incur taxation on tips not received and/or 12 inaccurately recording tips in a manner that illegally and unfairly increase Plaintiff and the 13 putative classes' state and federal tax liabilities. Plaintiff will seek to have the Court enjoin 14 Defendants from such practices so as to prevent inaccurate income information being assigned to 15 Plaintiff and others similarly situated and for which tax liability is incurred despite the fact that 16 less than the reported income is earned.

17 67. As a direct and proximate result of the unfair business practices of 18 Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all employees similarly 19 situated, is entitled to equitable and injunctive relief, including full restitution, specific 20 performance, and/or disgorgement of all wages which have been unlawfully withheld from 21 Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class as a result of the business acts and practices herein 22 and enjoining of Defendants to cease and desist from engaging in the practices described herein.

23 68. The illegal conduct alleged herein is continuing, and there is no indication 24 that Defendants will not continue such activity into the future. Plaintiff alleges that if Defendants 25 are not enjoined from the conduct set forth in the Complaint, they will continue to fail to provide 26 hourly wages, fail to provide overtime wages for off-the-clock working while clocked out for 27 meal periods, violate minimum reporting laws, fail to provide meal periods or appropriate 28 compensation in lieu thereof, fail to provide rest periods or appropriate compensation in lieu

1 thereof, fail to compensate employees for required expenses, and will fail to pay and avoid 2 paying appropriate taxes, insurance, and unemployment withholdings.

3 69. Plaintiff further requests that the court issue a preliminary and permanent 4 injunction prohibiting Defendants from continuing to fail to pay hourly wages, require employees 5 to work off-the-clock while clocked out for meal periods, continuing to dismiss employees 6 without furnishing them with the usual or scheduled day's work or commensurate payment in 7 lieu thereof, fail to provide rest periods and meal periods or provide appropriate compensation in 8 lieu thereof, and fail to compensate employees for required expenses.

9 70. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and the Class she seeks to represent request relief 10 as described below.

11 VII.

13 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment as follows:

- 14 1. That the court determine this action may be maintained as a class action and 15 certify the Plaintiff Class and each Plaintiff Sub-Class;

- 2 for required expenses for Plaintiffs and each Plaintiff Class member on the Fifth
- 3 Cause of Action, according to proof;
- 4 8. That the Defendants be found to have engaged in unfair competition in violation
- 5 of Business and Professions Code § 17200;
- 6 9. That the Defendants be ordered and enjoined to pay restitution to Plaintiff, each
- 7 Plaintiff Class member and each Plaintiff Sub-Class member due to the
- 8 Defendants' unlawful and unfair competition, including full restitution,

- 10 according to proof, and interest thereon pursuant to Business and Professions
- 11 Code §§ 17203 and 17204, on the Sixth Cause of Action;
- 12 10. That Defendants be enjoined from further acts of unfair competition and
- 13 specifically from failing to pay overtime compensation and failing to provide rest
- 14 and meal periods to class members on the Sixth Cause of Action;
- 15 11. That Defendants be enjoined from keeping inaccurate records regarding employee
- 16 tips wherein the tip earnings are over-reported to tax authorities and resulting in
- 17 increased and unfair tax liability to Plaintiff and the putative class;
- 18 12. That Plaintiff, each Plaintiff Class and each Plaintiff Sub-Class members be
- 19 awarded Attorneys fees and costs pursuant to statute, including but not limited to
- 20 Labor Code § 1194, Business & Professions Code Section 17200 et seq., and to
- 21 the fullest extent permitted by Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;
- 22 13. Otherwise determine the appropriate remedy to compensate Plaintiff, each

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

CASE NUMBER: 37-2008-00079891-CU-OE-CTL CASE TITLE: Cobb vs. Gordon Biersch Brewing Company Inc

NOTICE TO LITIGANTS/ADR INFORMATION PACKAGE

You are required to serve a copy of this Notice to Litigants/ADR Information Package and a copy of the blank Stipulation to Alternative Dispute Resolution Process (received from the Civil Business Office at the time of filing) with a copy of the Summons and Complaint on all defendants in accordance with San Diego Superior Court Rule 2.1.5, Division II and CRC Rule 201.9.

ADR POLICY

It is the policy of the San Diego Superior Court to strongly support the use of Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR") in all general civil cases. The court has long recognized the value of early case management intervention and the use of alternative dispute resolution options for amenable and eligible cases. The use of ADR will be discussed at all Case Management Conferences. It is the court's expectation that litigants will utilize some form of ADR – i.e. the court's mediation or arbitration programs or other available private ADR options as a mechanism for case settlement before trial.

ADR OPTIONS

1) CIVIL MEDIATION PROGRAM: The San Diego Superior Court Civil Mediation Program is designed to assist parties with the early resolution of their dispute. All general civil independent calendar cases, including construction defect, complex and eminent domain cases are eligible to participate in the program. Limited civil collection cases are not eligible at this time. San Diego Superior Court Local Rule 2.31, Division II addresses this program specifically. Mediation is a non-binding process in which a trained mediator 1) facilitates communication between disputants, and 2) assists parties in reaching a mutually acceptable resolution of all or part of their dispute. In this process, the mediator carefully explores not only the relevant evidence and law, but also the parties' underlying interests, needs and priorities. The mediator is not the decision-maker and will not resolve the dispute – the parties do. Mediation is a flexible, informal and confidential process that is less stressful than a formalized trial. It can also save time and money, allow for greater client participation and allow for more flexibility in creating a resolution.

Assignment to Mediation, Cost and Timelines: Parties may stipulate to mediation at any time up to the CMC or may stipulate to mediation at the CMC. Mediator fees and expenses are split equally by the parties, unless otherwise agreed. Mediators on the court's approved panel have agreed to the court's payment schedule for county-referred mediation: $150.00 per hour for each of the first two hours and their individual rate per hour thereafter. Parties may select any mediator, however, the court maintains a panel of court-approved mediators who have satisfied panel requirements and who must adhere to ethical standards. All court-approved mediator fees and other policies are listed in the Mediator Directory at each court location to assist parties with selection. Discovery: Parties do not need to conduct full discovery in the case before mediation is considered, utilized or referred. Attendance at Mediation: Trial counsel, parties and all persons with full authority to settle the case must personally attend the mediation, unless excused by the court for good cause.

2) JUDICIAL ARBITRATION: Judicial Arbitration is a binding or non-binding process where an arbitrator applies the law to the facts of the case and issues an award. The goal of judicial arbitration is to provide parties with an adjudication that is earlier, faster, less formal and less expensive than trial. The arbitrator's award may either become the judgment in the case if all parties accept or if no trial de novo is requested within the required time. Either party may reject the award and request a trial de novo before the assigned judge if the arbitration was non-binding. If a trial de novo is requested, the trial will usually be scheduled within a year of the filing date.

Assignment to Arbitration, Cost and Timelines: Parties may stipulate to binding or non-binding judicial arbitration or the judge may order the matter to arbitration at the case management conference, held approximately 150 days after filing, if a case is valued at under $50,000 and is "at issue". The court maintains a panel of approved judicial arbitrators who have practiced law for a minimum of five years and who have a certain amount of trial and/or arbitration experience. In addition, if parties select an arbitrator from the court's panel, the court will pay the arbitrator's fees. Superior Court

3) SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES: The goal of a settlement conference is to assist the parties in their efforts to negotiate a settlement of all or part of the dispute. Parties may, at any time, request a settlement conference before the judge assigned to their case; request another assigned judge or a pro tem to act as settlement officer; or may privately utilize the services of a retired judge. The court may also order a case to a mandatory settlement conference prior to trial before the court's assigned Settlement Conference judge.

4) OTHER VOLUNTARY ADR: Parties may voluntarily stipulate to private ADR options outside the court system including private binding arbitration, private early neutral evaluation or private judging at any time by completing the "Stipulation to Alternative Dispute Resolution Process" which is included in this ADR package. Parties may also utilize mediation services offered by programs that are partially funded by the county's Dispute Resolution Programs Act. These services are available at no cost or on a sliding scale based on need. For a list of approved DRPA providers, please contact the County's DRPA program office at (619) 238-2400.

ADDITIONAL ADR INFORMATION: For more information about the Civil Mediation Program, please contact the Civil Mediation Department at (619) 515-8908. For more information about the Judicial Arbitration Program, please contact the Arbitration Office at (619) 531-3818. For more information about Settlement Conferences, please contact the Independent Calendar department to which your case is assigned. Please note that staff can only discuss ADR options and cannot give legal advice.
